Seniors Receive State Scholarships, Many Other Awards

The Monday Afternoon Club Scholarship, given annually to an outstanding senior in one of the high schools of the Plainfields, was this year awarded to Betty Reinman. Betty will receive $500 the first year, $200 the next year.

State scholarships, covering full tuition and fees at the designated state college, were awarded to the following students: Lynne Boettger, Glassboro State Teachers College; Kate Gallison, Douglass College; Richard Gough, Rutgers University; and Ethel Regenberg, Douglass College.

Ethel Regenberg was also the recipient of the Plainfield College Club Scholarship of $300.

Other scholarship winners are Robert Haines, an award of $650 to Princeton and one of $450 per year to Wesleyan University; Carol Kazala, a scholarship of $100 to Berkeley Secretarial School; Heather Kunzman and Irma Shevin, scholarships to the Albert Einstein Medical Center covering full tuition and expenses; John Lipani, $350 annual scholarship to Columbia University; Sam Roberson an award of $375 to Williams College; and Pat Sroka a full tuition scholarship of $700 for the freshman year at Rhode Island School of Design.

Carol White Wins NP Seal Contest

Carol White, NPHS freshmen, was first place winner in the North Plainfield Borough seal design contest conducted by the Storr-Richie Post 506, Veterans of Foreign Wars. This contest was open to all students in Mrs. Frieda Bockius's art classes. Forty drawings were submitted at a regular meeting of the Mayor and Council. A resolution accepted Carol's design as the official seal of the Borough.

As first prize winner Carol will be awarded a fifty-dollar United States War Bond. Second and third place winners in the contest will receive similar prizes. Their names will be announced in the awards assembly today, June 4.

Key Club Elects Officers

The NPHS Key Club elected officers at the May 13 meeting and installed them on May 20 at the Key Club banquet. Taking over the presidency is Vince Lipani; the vice-presidency, Gary Bicknell; the secretary's position, Henry Gotard; and the treasurer's duties, Joe Hines.

Five Seniors To Speak At Graduation Exercises

Featured at the commencement exercises to be held June 13 will be speeches by Elizabeth Mac Laren, Patricia Sroka, Ann Klompus, Carol Willard and Ethel Regenberg. The five girls were chosen on the merit of their essays on the subject, "Youth Looks to The Future" in a contest held for all seniors. These will replace the valedictory and salutatory speeches given in past years.

Baccalaureate To Be June 9

Baccalaureate services will be held June 9 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. An address will be given by the Reverend Earl E. Hair of the Watchung Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The orchestra will play the processional, the recessional and a postlude. All seniors will be required to wear caps and gowns, which they will receive at the practice the preceding Friday afternoon, June 7.

Future Nurses Name Officers

The newly elected officers of the Future Nurses' Club were installed in office by Heather Kunzman, outgoing president, at the club's annual dinner held May 14 at the Stockholm in Somerville.

Girls installed in office are president, Clara Darcy; vice-president, Bonnie Baron; recording secretary, Deanna Smith; corresponding secretary, Nancy Graeber; treasurer, Pat Townley; and historian, Carole Watson.

After the dinner and installation of officers all members in good standing received the official club pin which was recently voted upon by club members.

Last year's club officers, Heather Kunzman, Pat Townley, Mary Lou Goff, Ruth Poulson, Joy Hansen, and Clara Darcy, were presented with white carnations tied with blue ribbons.

McKenna Selected As New 'Canuck' Editor

Selected recently as the new Canuck editor for 1957 was Dick McKenna, present TUNLAW editor. Other officers will be selected later.

This year's senior staff under Barbara Contestable has done a good job in getting out the yearbook. This year a small steering committee was organized to work during the day. This idea will probably be carried out next year.

Senior pictures for next year's book will be taken during the summer. Appointments will be made, and these must be completed during the duration of the summer.

Dr. Thurman H. Bare, superintendent of North Plainfield schools, will present the Class of 1957 to the Board of Education. On behalf of the Board of Education, Mr. William J. Carroll, president, will accept the class and distribute diplomas to the graduating seniors.

After the benediction, the class will sing the NPHS "Alma Mater," and march out to the recessional.

Each senior will receive 5 tickets to commencement, as the graduation exercises will be held in the annex gymnasium, which seats a total of 1,800. Rehearsals for graduation will be held on June 11, 12, and 13. Caps and gowns will be given out at the Baccalaureate rehearsal.

Twirling Coach Picks 4 To Lead Band Next Year

Mary Fetherston has been selected to be captain of the majorettes next year. Other majorettes, chosen by Mr. Robert Klein, twirling instructor, will be Pat Ingman, Maureen Parker, and Kathie Palocco. The girls were selected on the basis of marching, twirling ability, and posture.

North Plainfield High's majorettes participated in a twirling clinic held at South Plainfield High School on May 4. Twirlers representing many schools in Middlesex, Somerset, and Union Counties presented routines and discussed dress, neatness, style of marching, and twirlers' responsibilities. Mary Fetherston, chosen to record the discussion on the responsibilities of a twirler, later gave a summary of that discussion.

It was noted that the girls from other schools particularly liked the plain, neat, military style of marching employed by our majorettes.

Tunlaw Editors Elected

The Tunlaw Staff of North Plainfield High School elected new editors for next year on Tuesday, May 14. They are as follows: Burt Weiss, editor in-chief; Daryl Rosen, news editor; Kathy Ward, features editor; Joe Hines, sports editor; Carol Carey and Jim Heron, copy editors. The business manager will be Dianna Crescenz. She was selected by Miss Marion Campbell, bookkeeping teacher.

June 14

This month is for seniors a time of rushing around, saying our final "thank-you's," struggling through what seems like endless exams and then practicing for commencement.

Before we realize it our last class is over and our last books have been handed in. No longer will we smell the chalk dust or hear the bells ringing for our next class.

The last bell rings and we go to the annex. In the locker room we put on those horrible gym shorts and air-conditioned sneakers and fall in the line for the last time for roll call.

Finally the 3:18 bell rings, and we know that no longer we will wait for that last bell. We will go on to bigger and better things.

After days of practice, we hear the last strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and make that last march up the aisle for our first and last high school diploma.

While singing our "Alma Mater," we think of all the fun we have had and the work we have done at NPHS.

Goodbye and Good Luck

In the fall when the new school year begins, few faces of people from the hills will be seen in the halls of NPHS. By that time the new Watchung Hills Regional High School will be ready for its first classes.

Even though most are leaving, a few juniors will remain as tuition pupils for their senior year.

We at North Plainfield will be sorry to lose many of our friends with whom we have worked for many years. Most of us will keep in touch with one another and remain the best of friends even though we will be rivals on the athletic field.

We at North Plainfield High School wish all of the hill folks the best of luck at their new school.

One Night in Washington

By Kate Gallison

Joe Canuck sat on his bed at the Hotel Raleigh and sighed deeply. It was one o'clock in the morning. All his roommates were in bed, snoring loudly. By rights Joe should have been there too; he had spent hours trekking around Washington with the other seniors, and he should have been dead tired. But, no. He was bursting with energy, raring to go, pining for lively companionship. Furthermore, he was hungry. The three hamburgers and the two orangeades with sherbet in them at the Hot Shoppe had hardly been enough to whet his appetite.

"I want to see Gloria," Joe mumbled. "She said they had found food up there."

"So why don't you call her up?" suggested a roommate, rolling over in bed. "Maybe she'll drop you some."

Joe pounced on the phone gleefully. "May I speak to room 1213?" He required of the room clerk.

"Not at this hour," came the reply.

Joe hung up the phone, defeated.

Suddenly a white scrap fluttering outside the window caught his eye. He went out on the balcony to see what it was. Dangling from somewhere far above was a note tied to the end of a string.

"Come up and see us," it said. "We have food, soda, everything." It was weighted with a cupcake and signed, "Gloria."

"Gee!" said Joe. "Clear from the twelfth floor!" He devoured the cupcake hungrily. "If they have corrie," he added, "I'll go up."

"Do you have coffee?" he wrote on the back of the note, and tugged three times. The string disappeared. Presently it returned with the label from an instant coffee jar flapping on the end.

"Hot dog!" cried Joe, and raced for the door.

For a while he debated whether to take the elevator or not, and decided it would be too dangerous. Supposing it stopped on the tenth floor, and two cops got on? He would be trapped.

"Eleven flights of stairs aren't too many," he decided, "for a great track star like me." He started up.

Passing the tenth floor, he noticed two cops lurking by the elevator. "That was close," he wheezed, and trudged on.

Finally he saw the twelfth coming above him. Only nine more steps to go... eight... seven...

Suddenly Joe caught sight of an ominous pair of shoes. His eyes, travelling upward, beheld the face of a cop. Three more cops were standing behind the first one.

Joe made a noise like a dying frog and stepped rapidly backwards. His foot slipped on the marble stairway. "Eeeyah!" he cried, and fell all the way down the eleven flights of stairs. Fortunately, he landed on his own floor.

"Well," he thought, picking himself up with a groan, "at least they'll never catch me. I even beat the elevator down."

He crawled laboriously into his room. All was dark. Fumbling, he groped his way to his suitcase and changed into his pajamas. Then he felt his way to the bed. "Ahhh!" he sighed, in anticipation of the soft cool sheet closing around him. He threw himself gratefully in.

Several arms and legs flailed at him. "Hey!" said two or three deep voices. Joe found himself sprawled on top of two or three of his classmates.

"What are you guys doing in here?" Joe demanded.

"The guys in our room locked us out," said one. "There was no place else to go."

"Yeah," said the other. "Beat it, will ya? We're trying to sleep."

Joe seized a pillow and went out on the balcony. "Anyway," he decided, "the air's fresher out here." He lay down on the tar paper and put the pillow under his head. Presently he began to doze off.

Suddenly his state of semi-consciousness was penetrated by weird unearthly sounds. "Heeheeheehee-hee-hehehe!" they went. "Splat! Heeheeheehehehe!" slowly he looked up. Five or six pin-curved heads protruded from a window in the fourth floor. Girlish giggles came floating down. Giggles with southern accents!

"That accounts for the 'hee hee hee,'" thought Joe, "but what was that 'splat'?" He soon found out. Plastic vegetable bags filled with water were raining down upon him. He fled into the hotel room. "That was close," he breathed. "They missed me. Crazy Georgians. But where can I sleep?" He surveyed the hotel floor, which was knee-deep in suitcases and dirty clothes. "Nope," he decided. "And the beds are too low to sleep under."

There was but one alternative: the bathtub. Joe took his blanket and pillow and climbed painfully in.

"Cold," he mused, "but it's better than sleeping out there." He snuggled down in the folds of the blanket and dropped off to pleasant dreams of the food at Gloria's.

In the cold gray light of dawn someone turned the shower on.

THE PAST IN NPHS

• 5 Years Ago

Marie Hardenburg and Jeanette Dzwileski were valedictorian and salutatorian respectively at the graduation exercises June 11. Approximately 206 seniors took part in the commencement program, which was held in the auditorium. Dr. Millard C. Faught, professor of political science and economics, was guest speaker. Dr. Thurman H. Bare, supervising principal, presented the class to Mr. William Carroll, president of the Board of Education, who presented the diplomas.

Each senior received three tickets to graduation, and the Board of Education members and their guests all received tickets to the exercises.

• 10 Years Ago

The commencement address of 1947 was given by Miss Bertha Lawrence, Dean of Instruction at Trenton State Teachers College, on June 16. At the graduation Jack Melick and Emmett Vokes played on two pianos the complete "Warsaw Concerto" by Richard Addinsell. The NPHS Orchestra played "Rosamunde Overture" by Franz Schubert and "Marche Royal" by J. De Smetsky.

• 20 Years Ago

The graduation exercises of 1937 were held on Thursday evening, June 24, at eight o'clock in the auditorium. Two hundred and nine seniors, of whom 108 were boys and 101 girls, were graduated. Judge Harold G. Wells of Borden-town, New Jersey delivered the commencement address. The graduating class was the largest in the history of the school up to 1937. The largest previous class graduated was that of 1935 when one hundred and seventy-three students were graduated.

WANDERING ALNUT

Because those from Watchung and Warren Township are leaving us the question for this issue is: How do you feel now that you are going to a new school?

Gordon Trowbridge, '56 - We will be the first class to graduate from the Watchung Hills Regional High. I will miss most of my classmates.

Chips Mathewson, '59 - It will present new opportunities in a new school. I'll miss some of my old friends, but I'll gain new ones.

Gordon Laing, '60 - It's going to be strange not seeing all my friends down here.

Sheldon Kohl, '60 - A new school presents a better chance for sports and new teachers.

Patty Nero, '60 - It'll be fun to go to a completely new school.

Judy Townsend, '60 - It'll be good to have a school of our own.

Barbara Rezanka, '60 - I'm going to miss my friends, but I want to go. And of course we'll beat North Plainfield in all sports.

Joe Kazala, '59 - We'll be glad to meet new kids but I'll miss my old ones.

Jerry Mobus, '60 - It's going to seem funny beating all those NPHS athletes in sports.

Teaching Staff To Lose Several

This year not only seniors and those of Watchung and Warren Township are leaving NPHS but also some of our teachers. Some will be teaching in nearby schools, some will be teaching farther away, and some are undecided about their future plans.

Mr. George Barclay has been teaching Biology in NPHS. Next year he will teach in the Union County Regional High School District.

Miss Victoria Melosi, girls' physical education teacher will be at Westfield Junior High School.

Miss Julia Freeman, French teacher, has not yet decided what she will be doing.

Mr. Louis Recchia one of our English teachers, is going to Westfield High School to teach English.

Mrs. Kathleen Peters, one of our algebra teachers, is going to teach mathematics at West Orange Junior High School next year.

Mrs. Janet Lewis, junior high art teacher, is undecided where she will be next year.

Mr. Alvin Schmidt, English teacher, is going to Mt. Vernon, New York, where he will teach English at Traphagen Jr. High School.

Mr. Edward Otto who teaches Economics, German, and Sociology, is going to Cranford High School.

Miss Edith Conti, who teaches business arithmetic and typing here at NPHS, will go to Borden-town to teach the same subjects at The William MacFarland High School.

Mr. Leonard Marcy, social studies teacher, has not decided where he will go.

After three years as librarian, Mr. Edward Samson is leaving. His future activities are undetermined.

Miss Elinor Comeau, Jr. High English and social studies teacher, is undecided about where she will be next year.

Mr. Samuel Isenberg, mathematics teacher, is leaving to teach at Watchung Hills Regional High School.

After seven years in the North Plainfield High School cafeteria, Mrs. Theodore Mundy has accepted a job at the new Watchung Hills Regional High School as head of the cafeteria.

Mr. Marvin Blaustein, general science teacher, will head the Watchung Hills Regional High School science department next year.

Mrs. Adah-Grace Vollmer, business instructor, will head the business department in the new school.

Jr. High Gives Choral Festival

By Patty Poulson

A choral festival by the seventh and eighth grades and the Cadet Band was held at the North Plainfield High School auditorium on Thursday, May 16, at 8:00 P.M.

Nancy Nadler sang two solos entitled "Hello Young Lovers" and "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning."

The eighth grade chorus sang the following selections: "Green Grow the Lilacs," "It Ain't Gonna Rain," and "The Serenaders."

The combined seventh and eighth grade chorus sang "I'm Going Down the Road," "Hush, Little Baby," and "Jacob's Ladder." Ellen Mott was the accompanist.

A seventh grade ensemble sang "Come and Dance Together" and a group of familiar American songs. The seventh grade chorus sang "America the Beautiful," and a seventh grade octet sang "Cara Mia" which is a Spanish American folk song. Mrs. Marlin Merrill directed the choruses.

The Cadet Band of seventh grade instrumental music pupils under the direction of Mr. Nelson Ernest played "The Happy Wanderer," "Junior High March," "Military Escort," and "Promotion."

Rosemarie Palomeni played a piano selection.

The admission was free, and a large audience attended.

Junior High Dance To Be Held June 14

By Joan Smith

The final eighth grade dance will be held on Friday, June 14, in the old gym. It will be sponsored by the Junior Student Council, with Mr. George Thompson in charge.

A contest was held to name the dance, and Linda Gilbride won with the suggestion of "Starlight Shuffle."

Social Study Class Make N.J. Projects

By Art Rossky

Miss Marion Riordan's fifth period social studies class made projects as a summary of their study of New Jersey's history, geography, and government.

The projects told of New Jersey's agriculture, government, colleges, topography, officials, historic spots, history, and natural resources.

They were on display in room H-6.

Track Meet Won by Homeroom H-4

A track meet for the girls and boys of the 7th and 8th grades was held on May 17, 1957 at Canuck Field. It began at 1:00 p.m. and ended at 3:18. Homeroom H-4 placed first.

Good Citizens

By Sonia Koumjian

The TUNLAW Jr. Staff would like to commend the following 8th grade students for their capable assistance in the "Learn to Swim" campaign in Plainfield High High School during the week of April 15.

Those who assisted in instructing were Sue Baron, Carol Bottcher, Fred Shauger, John Schneider and John Sherlock. We are very proud when our friends volunteer for useful and helpful services in our community.

PROWLING PEANUT

By Jack O'Brien

What would you do if you came face to face with an Aedes Aegyptii?

Tom Ovens: I'd have my brother run over it.

Kathy Gallick: I'd turn around and go the other way.

Art Rossky: Show it to Mr. Thompson.

Sonya Koumjian: Bellevue's that way.

Drew Smith: I'd sing back to it.

Pat Poulson: I'd introduce myself.

Bill Celentano: I'd shoot it.

Ronny Valentine: I'd keep it in a net.

Mark Greathouse: I'd trample it.

Marge Tilly: Head for the brook.

Joan Smith: I'd eat it with chop sticks.

Pat Harris: I'd die laughing.

Junior GAA Sports Coming To Close

By Sue Baron

Many girls have been very active in spring athletics for the 7th and 8th grades. The badminton season is now coming to a close.

Nancy Turbowitz, Lorraine Davis, Joan Meiser, Linda Nauta, Barbara Brown, and Dolores Rushetski are still battling it out for the seventh grade championship.

The G.A.A.'s new eighth grade officers will soon be elected. The present eighth grade girls will also take part in the election.

Jr. High Club Visits Library

By William Calentano

On Tuesday, May 7, the Junior High Projectionist Club visited the County Film Library in the Somerset County Administration Building at Somerville.

The members became acquainted with the film library and learned how different films are rewound and cleaned. They also found out how films are stored and distributed to different schools in Somerset County. The boys were accompanied by their adviser, Mr. George Thompson.

The members of the club taking the trip were Bart Overocks, Gilbert Glaubinger, Don McKenna, Doug Hanson, Bill Celetano, Joe Philips, Ben Foster, Elston Seal, Herbert Lauterwald, Tom Haydu, Horton Hickerson, Eric Holme, Dave Foland, Norman Schenk, and Tom Krizon, president of the club.

Jr. High Tracksters Defeat Somerville

By Harry Leschyn and Ronnie Valentine

The boys' Junior High track team held its first meet of the season at Somerville, Tuesday, May 14. The team traveled by bus to Somerville after eighth period. Mr. Harold Porter, the coach, accompanied the team.

North Plainfield won the meet by a score of 86 to 11. Bob Sicoli set a new record in the 120-yard hurdles with a time of 17 seconds. Sam Hicks ran the 100-yard dash in 11.5½ seconds, setting a new Junior High record. Hicks also ran the 220-yard dash in 27.6 seconds which is only three tenths of a second more than the record.

These North Plainfield athletes placed in the following events:

440-Yard Dash 1. Zahos 66.6 sec. 2. Leszchyn 3. Seal

440-Yard Relay 1. N.P. 53.6 sec. 2. N.P.

100-Yard Dash 1. Hicks 11.5½ sec. 2. Leszchyn 3. Beattie-Kraig (of Somerville)

High Jump 1. Valentine 4'10" 2. Richardson 3. Ovens 4. Shaugen-Sicoli

220-Yard Dash 1. Hicks 27.6 sec. 2. Ovens 3. Bozack 4. Seal

120-Yard Hurdles 1. Sicoli 17.0 sec. 2. Zahos-Anderson (of Somerville) 3. Del Vecchio 4. Richardson

Broad Jump 1. Zahos 15'2½" 2. Retto 3. Bozack 4. Seal

Pole Vault 1. Sperling-Foland 7' 2. Ovens, 3. Amo-Valentine

Shot Put 1. Dennick 37'7" 2. Mann 3. Retto

Jr. Science Students Study Soil, Animal Life

By Sonya Koumjian

Mr. Herbert Kanter's seventh grade science class has recently been studying soil and its types. Over Easter vacation each student grew beans, grass, and corn in different kinds of soils. They discovered in which soil plants grow best.

Mr. George Thompson's eighth grade classes have been studying animal biology. Each student is taking a type of animal life from the very lowest to the highest forms and doing projects on it. They will talk about them to their classes, including the characteristics and structure of the animals.

Mr. Thompson's seventh grade classes have also been studying soil and conservation of natural resources. The pupils were asked to collect ten types of soil and tell where it was found. They studied the characteristics of each type of soil.

MEMORIES

Vacation days are happy days
For those who will return;
But of those who say good-by forever
Their hearts will always yearn
To walk again amid their friends,
Sharing laughter and some tears
Dear NPHS, your memories will Linger through the years.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

By Nancy Sturcke

It is now the year 1982, and the 1956-57 Girls' Athletic Association is holding its twenty-fifth reunion. Yes, friends it certainly is a roll-back-place to see. There are about eighty guests. The walls of Arbor Inn are literally splitting with all the noise. It sounds almost like the actual meeting—before they start of course.

Ah! Our gym teacher and adviser of past years, Miss Grace Roff, who did a wonderful job of managing us and through whose thoughtful guidance the year 1956-57 was such a successful one, signals to Carol Kime, the 1956-57 president. Carol, along with the other officers on her staff—Judy Dennick; vice-president, Lois Fetz; corresponding secretary, Dolores Stephan; minute keeper, Nikki Hildum; fund keeper, Harriet Gorman; and Clara Darcy, and Nancy McIvers, recorders—are attempting to quiet the crowd. They seem to be having some trouble but at last the girls have quieted down.

After a delicious turkey dinner (incidentally, the menu is identical to that used twenty-five years ago), Carol Kime announces the incoming staff who were officers in the year 1957-58: president, Judy Dennick; vice-president, Bonnie Baron; secretary, Mary Lou Goff; corresponding secretary, Clara Darcy; treasurer, Dolores Stephan; recorders, Mary Lou Sanders, Pat Townley, and Carol Watson; and welfare, Judy Kosteck. (And I might add, that all of them did a splendid job, but more can and will be said about them at the 1983 GAA reunion.)

Carol starts to name the officers of the year 1958-59, but the master clock is ticking away precious minutes, so she decides to begin the discussion about sports and the special events of the year.

The fall sports season was started with hockey and all the girls recalled a most enjoyable season. GAA then held a cake sale and almost all the girls contributed delicious home-made cakes (apparently many others liked the cakes too, because $30 was netted.)

Selling black and gold charm bracelets spelling out "North Plainfield High School" also helped the treasury to expand. Bowling at the Somerset Recreation for reduced rates on Mondays began, but the turnout wasn't too good because an instructor was not available.

Volleyball was the next sport on the agenda, and a round robin tournament was held. Volleyball came to a memorable close when the winning team (the seniors natch) played some of the women faculty. You can guess who won (the seniors natch) with a one-sided score of 49-28. But the girls thought the teachers were grand sports for playing.

Basketball saw 108 enthusiastic girls participating throughout the season. In the sport days against the other schools all the teams did well. The schools we played were Highland Park, Springfield Regional, Somerville, Scotch Plains, Dunellen, and South Plainfield. The freshmen wound up with a 5-1 record, while the sophs won three and lost their first, since they became an organized team. The juniors finished with a 4-2 record, and the seniors broke even, winning two and losing two. An elimination badminton tournament ended the winter season with 110 girls participating.

Six of the girls remembered the benefits of the Physical Fitness Clinic at Westfield High School, and five recalled the fun and pleasure derived from the annual state play day.

Softball got off to a late start because of the moist weather conditions. The annual banquet was held for the first time at Arbor Inn (it had previously been at Mansard Inn) and was quite successful with about seventy girls attending. The officers were installed and awards were given out. The GAA year was concluded with the shore trip at Point Pleasant, and everyone who went claimed they had the greatest time ever.

So, friends, the reunion at Arbor Inn has come to a close. All the girls are sad to leave but are anxiously awaiting next year's 1983 reunion.

Kuzela, Burdick To Lead Gridmen

This coming September Ed Kuzela and Dave Burdick, the co-captains for next season, will lead the Canucks on the gridiron. Beginning with the '57 season North Plainfield High School will no longer compete with Plainfield High School, but next year some new schools in Somerset county will be added to our schedule.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 22, the 1956 football team concluded its '56 season with a 12-7 victory over the South Plainfield Tigers. That was the first varsity game for the South Plainfield team with the Canucks and the beginning of a new rivalry.

Another highlight of the '56 campaign was that the Somerville Pioneers, arch-rivals of the Canucks, went down to defeat by North Plainfield for the first time in five years.

Our old rivals from across the brook pinned a loss on us. The Plainfield Cardinals defeated the Canucks on November 3.

For the whole season the grid-ders compiled a record of 3 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie.

The junior varsity football team recorded 2 wins and 6 losses. In the '56 season the Canuck J.V.'s defeated Cranford and Bernards.

Crusaders Edge Canucks In Somerset Track Meet

For the first time in six years, the Canuck track team has been edged out of the Somerset County Track and Field Championships, but not without a rough battle. Coach Timer's boys did right well at Olcott Field in Bernardsville up to the final events, where the needed strength was lacking. The tough Bound Brook squad clinched the meet with a one-two placing in the broad jump. Even a tremendous leap by junior Dean Alpine, surprising both coaches and teammates, failed to gain the needed place.

On the happier side, North Plainfield athletes copped four first places and scored at least one point in each event of the thirteen event meet. Taking a first was sophomore Ray Smith in the 440-yard run with a time of 53.2 seconds, 0.2 seconds off the county record. Bill Hogue, a senior, copped the pole vault at a height of 11'4", just 3" short of the county mark. Weightmen Doug Guerard and Bob Martin, both seniors, split firsts in the shot and discus respectively with throws of 47'1" and 136'1/4".

Other boys taking places were Paul Swieringa, third in the 100-yard dash and second in the 220-yard dash; Dick Gough, third in the 440-yard run; Fred Dresp, second in the 880-yard run; Joe Good, fourth in the 880-yard run; Dick Nowalk, second in the mile run; Doug Long, fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles; Alan Weissbecker, third in the pole vault; Lou Ruvalo, tied for fourth in the pole vault; Don Tucker, third in the high jump; Bob Martin, fourth in the shot put; Doug Guerard, second in the discus; and Pete King, fourth in the javelin.

Final scores were Bound Brook - 54, North Plainfield - 48, Somerville - 27, Bernardsville - 14.

North Plainfield coaches are Mr. Sam Timer and Mr. Dick Schneider.

North Plainfield faculty officiating at the meet were Mr. Willard H. Smith, Mr. Howard Krausche, Mr. Louis Recchia, Mr. Herbert Kanter, and Mr. Seymour Kelin.

DEPARTING SENIORS

The Graduation Battle's done,
But the war is not yet won.
You may go forth and not return,
But senior, you've a lot to learn.

Frosh Beat SP; Lose To Cards

The freshman baseball team has a 3-2 record with one game with Plainfield remaining on their schedule.

After the frosh had won their first game at South Plainfield, they took on Stirling Junior High at Canuck Field. The frosh took a three-run lead on a hit batter, Russell Thomas' single, Bill Marko's double, and a fielding error in the second inning. The Canucks had a four-run lead going into the last frame, but starting pitcher Al Kluck had a wild streak, and before relief pitcher Richard Miller could stem the tide, Stirling had closed the gap to one run. Miller ended the game by striking out a pinch hitter. Bill Marko had a perfect day for NP, going 4 for 4.

NPHS went down to its first defeat of the season when it traveled across the brook to Plainfield. Although the frosh opened up a one-run lead in the first inning they could not hold on to it. Lack of support caused Richard Miller, who pitched a strong game, to lose his first game of the year.

When the frosh met South Plainfield for the second time they again rolled to a victory. The frosh put this game on ice when singles by Bob Castronova and Elliot Siegal were followed by a base-clearing home run by Doug Schmidt in the sixth inning. Schmidt's home run was the only one by a NP freshman this year.

For the second time this year the Canucks lost an early one-run lead when they travelled to Stirling Junior High. After Bill Pope scored for NPHS in the first inning, Stirling came back with five big runs in the last half of the first inning. The freshmen never caught up to Stirling and lost the game by a score of 9-3.

The frosh complete their schedule with a home game with Plainfield on May 21.

Canucks Lose County Relays in Last Event

In a hotly contested battle waged at Olcott Field in Bernardsville, the Somerset County Relays went right down to the last and deciding event, Bound Brook winning the meet by four points. With two events remaining, the score was knotted between the Canucks and the Crusaders at 20-all.

Taking firsts for the Canucks were the 1-mile and 4-mile relay teams. Contestants in the 1-mile team were Dick Gough, Art Cummins, Dean Alpine, and Ray Smith. Contestants in the 4-mile were Dick Nowalk, Nick Rayder, Tom Neal, and Ray Kenny.

Other boys running were Dennis Deady, Ted Soutzos, Peter King, Paul Swieringa, Dick Lee, Doug Guerard, Joe Good, Keith Byers, Ralph Santonastaso, Fred Dresp, Harvey Onore, Doug Long, Dick McKenna, Don Tucker, Joe Hines, Joe Miscoff, and Mike Leta.

Diamondmen Win 3 Tilts; Canucks, Cardinals Split

When TUNLAW went to press, the Canuck diamond standings were at three wins and six losses. The Canuck wins were over Plainfield, Westfield, and Somerville. Plainfield High School also defeated North Plainfield on May 3, giving each team a win for the city championship. A play-off game was arranged for Friday, May 24, at the Plainfield High School field.

In the second game of the season on April 30, Bound Brook, whose revitalized track team has also been plaguing the Canucks this season, pinned a loss on us, 2-1. Action began in the third inning when Larry Hess was erased at home attempting to steal.

Walt Jelmert provided the run for the Canucks in the fifth inning with his triple that drove in Dick England, who had doubled. In the next inning Pete Hall of the Crusaders hit a home run to tie the game. Blakely Stafford, a Crusader, pushed in the winning run in the seventh with a single and the Canucks failed to score in the bottom half of the seventh.

Coach Howard Krausche used a quartet of pitchers in the Dunellen game but failed to gain the first victory of the season. Dunellen scored eleven runs and pounded eleven hits, including a three-run homer by Ed Cashir and a four-bagger by Jim Durham, to win, 5-3.

In the fourth inning North Plainfield came up with three runs, when Don McDonald, Bill Gregory, and Dave Henn each singled. Two runs scored when Dunellen's left-fielder dropped a fly ball. In the seventh NP's soph, Pete Carmichael, sparked a three-run rally by a double which drove in two runs.

• Cards Defeat NPHS, 8-6

At the Plainfield High School field on May 3, the Canucks went down to defeat to the Cardinals. In the game, which showed a lot of keen competition, the Canucks went ahead the first time at bat as Pete Carmichael stroled to first. He was then moved to second by a sacrifice of catcher Frank Keenan and advanced to third as Dick Sullivan flied out. Pete tallied on Pete Wegener's single.

NPHS added another run when Don McDonald, safe on an error, went the rest of the way as Ed Krusman doubled to center.

The fourth inning proved the nemesis of the Canucks as the Cards boomed five hits including Dom Dessino's triple to left field.

On May 7, the Somerville Pioneers shut out the Canucks by a score of 6-0.

About the closest to home the NP diamondmen got was in the second inning when Don McDonald, Dick England, and Craig Slack all drew walks, but each was left standing.

• Canucks Score First Win

North Plainfield racked up its first win of the season by defeating Somerville, 9-3, at Canuck Field.

The key play of the game occurred after Don McDonald walked, Dick England singled, and the Pioneer third baseman bobbled to put another Canuck on base. Then John Villani of Somerville missed a double play ball hit to him. Pete Carmichael was forced out, but another run came home. Dick Sullivan's bouncer was thrown away by Tom Carroll, and Pete Wegener's single made a total of five runs in the second inning.

A fifth inning homer by Larry Hess made the score 8-3 in favor of the Canucks. In the last inning Ed Krusman singled and Frank Keenan's triple drove him in to make nine runs for the Canucks.

• Canucks Score Thirteen Hits

North Plainfield High School defeated Westfield High School, 9-7. The game was won by a thirteen-hit barrage that included a two-run homer by winning pitcher Don McDonald.

In the fourth inning after Westfield was ahead, 5-3, the four bagger by Don came, which drove in Frank Keenan, who had singled.

Larry Hess and Pete Carmichael singled in the eighth and ninth runs in the sixth inning and Westfield fell two runs short after a two-run rally in the seventh.

• Sullivan Ruins Cards

In the second meeting of Plainfield and North Plainfield there was another display of sharp competition as some of the boys let off steam by a fisticuffs performance.

Dick Sullivan spurred on the Canucks with four R.B.I.'s and four hits including two triples and a double. A triple in the bottom of the seventh brought the Canucks out from behind to win the contest 5-4.

The Canucks' new rival, South Plainfield, beat North Plainfield at Canuck Field. The game went for ten innings, but the Tigers squeezed out a 5-3 victory.

Craig Slack, who started pitching for the Canucks, was relieved in the seventh by Frank Keenan. Frank finished up for the Canucks, but in the tenth inning, an error, a pass ball, and a balk brought home Tiger, Ed Horel, with the winning run.

Tennis Players Have 10-0 Record

The NPHS tennis team is sporting a 10-1 record. The greatest win was, of course, over Plainfield, the first loss that the Cardinals have suffered at our hands in several years. Even though they lost the first singles and first doubles the Canucks came back to win, 3-2.

Leading the team to victory were Ed Neuguth and Pete King, first doubles and first singles. Ed, a senior this year, has played tennis for four years. He displays a tremendous service and a wise court game.

Pete, a junior, is the powerhouse of the team and has a strong forehand and good serve.

Fred Domkos and Dick Bowlby are second singles and second doubles. Fred, a junior, also displays a good forehand and a good net game. Dick, a sophomore, has a tremendous forehand and backhand and also good ground strokes. Domkos and Bowlby together have taken 19 straight in second doubles.

Doug Lloyd and Eric Mangione have displayed great promise this year. Much is expected of them next year.

The home games this year have been held at Cedarbrook Park. The tennis team cordially invites anyone who wishes to watch to come.

The secret of tennis, according to Coach Alvin Shmidt, is practice, practice, and more practice. A good example of this aphorism is this year's record. Incidentally its the best since the early forties.

JV Ball Team Ends With 4-3-1 Record

In their third game of the season with a 1-0-1 record behind them, the J.V. baseball team went on to win against Dunellen, 12-5. They lost the next three games: Somerville, 4-3; Plainfield, 1-6; and Somerville again, 9-3. They won the next two: South Plainfield, 15-6; and Plainfield, 10-0.

Nick Rayder and Tom Neal hit homeruns in the Plainfield game.

Mr. Ed Stec thinks that this year better ball is being played. Hitting is, on the whole, improving. "The Plainfield game gave the boys a good lift and really encouraged them to play better," said Mr. Stec.

Canuck Runners Hold 4-1 Record

The Canuck track team under the coaching of Mr. Sam Timer and Mr. Dick Schneider have chalked up a record of 4-1. They lost only one meet to Bound Brook by one point.

• Bound Brook 59, NPHS 58

In the meet against Bound Brook North Plainfield lost its first County meet this season by a score of 59-58.

Doug Guerard was the only double winner in this meet, but Don Tucker and Bill Hogue both broke records. Guerard again took both of the weight events. Tucker jumped six feet in the high jump and Hogue cleared 11 feet six inches in the pole vault.

• Clark Regional 34, NPHS 83

North Plainfield High's cindermen trounced Clark, 83-34. The meet was at home and was the fourth loss for Clark.

Chip Day and Paul Swerings were both double winners in this meet. Chip took the discuss and javelin. Paul took both dashes.

• Somerville 40½, NPHS 76½

The Canuck tracksters beat Somerville on May 9 by a score of 76½-40½.

Doug Guerard and Paul Sweringa were again double winners. Ron Scholes of Somerville was also a double winner. Doug took both the weights, and Paul took both dashes. Scholes took both of the hurdle events.
